COGS Content Specialization Proposal Submission Form

This form SHOULD be completed and returned by all COGS Ph.D. graduate students. Authorization will be given for the Content Specialization only when this form is returned to the Cognitive science Program office with (1) The Advisory Committee Chairperson’s signature, (2) the title of the Content Specialization Topic, and (3) an attached copy of the approved proposal that was submitted to the advisory committee.

Student’s Name: ____________________________  ID Number: _______________________

Title or Topic of Content Specialization: ____________________________________________
________________________________________

List of courses (at least five courses in at least two different departments) approved by the student’s advisory/research committee that you plan to use.

______   _______   _______   _______   _______   _______

______   _______   _______   _______   _______   _______

______   _______   _______   _______   _______   _______

______   _______   _______   _______   _______   _______

Proposal Attached

Chairperson’s signature ___________________________  Date ______________